3. Reasons for the Conclusion of the Domination and Profit and Loss Transfer Agreement

3.1 Corporate Law Reasons

ProSiebenSat.1 Group has a holding structure on which basis the total operational activities are carried out by legally independent group companies. These are managed by ProSiebenSat.1 Media SE as group managing holding company (see above 2.1.2). From a corporate law perspective, the purpose of the domination and profit and loss transfer agreement of ProSiebenSat.1 Media SE with ProSiebenSat.1 Sports GmbH is to facilitate a coherent management of the group of companies by ProSiebenSat.1 Media SE.

The contract based group of companies (Vertragskonzern) guarantees that ProSiebenSat.1 Media SE may successfully fulfill its tasks as group managing holding company. These tasks include the strategic management with guidelines for targets of the group of companies, the further development, the control of financial results, the best possible use of synergy potentials between and within the individual business activities as well as the best use of financial resources in the group of companies. This purpose serves the provision in Sec. 1 of the domination and profit and loss transfer agreement concluded with ProSiebenSat.1 Sports GmbH pursuant to which ProSiebenSat.1 Sports GmbH submits itself to the control and the instructions of ProSiebenSat.1 Media SE. The contract based group of companies creates the possibility to match the interest of ProSiebenSat.1 Sports GmbH with the interest of the whole group of companies keeping the responsibility for the financial results with ProSiebenSat.1 Sports GmbH.

CONVENIENCE TRANSLATION. FOR READING PURPOSES ONLY!

Furthermore, the conclusion of the domination and profit and loss transfer agreement shall facilitate the handling within the ProSiebenSat.1 Group of the existing bank account clearing systems. With the existence of a domination and profit and loss transfer agreement, the legal restrictions resulting from the provisions regarding the capital maintenance (Kapitalerhaltung) of the subsidiaries do not apply in the context of the establishment of a bank account clearing system for the management of the liquidity within the group of companies; instead, the obligation to loss absorption of the dominating company serves as protection mechanism. This leads to a significant simplification of the control and implementation of the group-wide bank account clearing system.

3.2 Tax Law Reasons

ProSiebenSat.1 Sports GmbH is a legally independent subsidiary of ProSiebenSat.1 Media SE. A corporate result generated by ProSiebenSat.1 Sports GmbH is subject to taxation on company level and may, therefore, generally not be set off with profits and losses of ProSiebenSat.1 Media SE or other group companies for purposes of corporate income tax (Körperschaftsteuer) or trade tax (Gewerbsteuer), regardless of whether any profits are retained (thesauriert) or distributed or any losses are compensated.

If ProSiebenSat.1 Sports GmbH distributes profits in the form of dividends, such dividends as a result are 95% tax-free at the level of ProSiebenSat.1 Media SE; 5% of the dividends are deemed non-deductible operating expenses (Betriebsausgaben) and are, therefore, subject to taxation pursuant to general principles. Further, ProSiebenSat.1 Sports GmbH generally has to retain withholding tax (Kapitalertragsteuer) in the amount of in total 26.375% in case of distribution of dividends and to pay it to the financial authority (Finanzamt) which, however, is to be deducted from the corporate income tax obligations of ProSiebenSat.1 Media SE and to be compensated in case of a hangover.

The aforementioned consequences may be avoided by the establishment of a fiscal unity (Organschaft) with respect to corporate income tax and trade tax between ProSiebenSat.1 Sports GmbH and ProSiebenSat.1 Media SE. Main requirement for the establishment of such fiscal unity is the conclusion of a profit and loss transfer agreement (Gewinnabführungsvertrag) between ProSiebenSat.1 Media SE as dominating company (subsequently also „Dominating Company“) and CONVENIENCE TRANSLATION. FOR READING PURPOSES ONLY!

ProSiebenSat.1 Sports GmbH as dependent company (subsequently also „Dependent Company“ or „Subsidiary“).

As a result of the fiscal unity, the profits and losses under tax law determined on the level of the Subsidiary are attributed to the Dominating Company for purposes of corporate income tax and trade tax. Thereby, a consolidation of the profits and losses of the Subsidiary with the profits and losses of the Dominating Company for tax purposes is possible. As a consequence, profits and losses of the Subsidiary may be set off with losses and profits of other dependent entities and/or the Dominating Company for tax purposes.

The fiscal unity with respect to corporate income tax does not lead to the cancellation of the general tax obligations of ProSiebenSat.1 Sports GmbH. ProSiebenSat.1 Sports GmbH must continue to determine its profits under tax laws as until now pursuant to the general provisions separately from the Dominating Company. The Dependent Company must transfer to the Dominating Company its annual profit (Jahresüberschuss) as calculated under the requirements of the German Commercial Code. Such transfer obligation must be shown in the financial statements of ProSiebenSat.1 Sports GmbH as a debt vis-à-vis group companies. Any annual loss (Jahresfehlbetrag) must be compensated by the Dominating Company and must be shown in the financial statements of ProSiebenSat.1 Sports GmbH as a claim vis-à-vis group companies.

The allocation of profits and losses pursuant to the provisions of the German Commercial Code must be distinguished from the one under tax law. Neither the annual profit nor the annual loss is attributed to the Dominating Company but rather the result of the profits and losses of the Dependent Company determined in accordance with tax law. For example, non-deductible expenses, tax-free revenues and permitted allocation of reserves lead to differences between the attributable result under tax laws and the result to be transferred or compensated, respectively, pursuant to the trade balance.

The part of the company agreement with ProSiebenSat.1 Sports GmbH regarding the domination shall enable the organizational integration required for purposes of the establishment of a fiscal unity with respect to value added tax (VAT) (Umsatzsteuer). As a consequence of the fiscal unity with respect to VAT, only ProSiebenSat.1 Media SE is considered an entrepreneur within the meaning of the Value Added Tax Act (Umsatzsteuergesetz – UStG); all services rendered by ProSiebenSat.1 Sports GmbH vis-à-vis third parties are, therefore, attributed to ProSiebenSat.1 Media SE for VAT purposes, whereas services between ProSiebenSat.1 Media SE and ProSiebenSat.1 Sports GmbH are considered internal services not subject to VAT.

Thus, by the establishment of a fiscal unity between ProSiebenSat.1 Media SE and ProSiebenSat.1 Sports GmbH an ideal structure is created for purposes of corporate income tax but also for trade tax and VAT. This does not only apply to the relation between ProSiebenSat.1 Media SE and ProSiebenSat.1 Sports GmbH but also, for example, to the relation to further companies with which ProSiebenSat.1 Media SE as Dominating Company maintains or will establish a fiscal unity.

An economically reasonable alternative to the conclusion of a domination and profit and loss transfer agreement between ProSiebenSat.1 Media SE and ProSiebenSat.1 Sports GmbH did not exist from the point of view of the Executive Board of ProSiebenSat.1 Media SE and the management of ProSiebenSat.1 Sports GmbH. In particular, by the conclusion of any other company agreement within the meaning of Secs. 292 et seq. of the German Stock Corporation Act (business lease agreement (Betriebspachtvertrag), business surrender agreement (Betriebsüberlassungsvertrag), profit pool (Gewinngemeinschaft) or agreement to transfer a share of profits (Teilgewinnabführungsvertrag)) or a business management contract (Betriebsführungsvertrags), a consolidated taxation of ProSiebenSat.1 Media SE and ProSiebenSat.1 Sports GmbH cannot be reached.

4. Explanation of the Domination and Profit and Loss Transfer Agreement

The domination and profit and loss transfer agreement between ProSiebenSat.1 Media SE as Dominating Company and ProSiebenSat.1 Sports GmbH as Subsidiary (hereinafter also the “Agreement”) constitutes a company agreement within the meaning of Secs. 291 ss. of the German Stock Corporation Act.

The Agreement as well as its individual provisions are to be explained as follows:

4.1 Management and Directives (Sec. 1 of the Agreement)

Pursuant to the provision in Sec. 1 para. 1 of the Agreement, the Subsidiary submits itself irrespective of its legal independence to the control of the Dominating Company.

In Sec. 1 para. 2 of the Agreement, the Dominating Company is granted the right, in exercising its authority to control the business activities of the Subsidiary and within the statutory limits, to take decisions on the business policy, to issue general guidelines and to give instructions on individual cases.

In Sec. 1 para. 3 of the Agreement, it is made clear that the personal responsibility of the Subsidiary’s managing directors for complying with the requirements of law is not affected by this obligation.

4.2 Profit Transfer (Sec. 2 of the Agreement)

By the provision in Sec. 2 para. 1 of the Agreement the Subsidiary undertakes to transfer to the Dominating Company in corresponding application of Sec. 301 of the German Stock Corporation Act its entire profit as calculated under the pertinent requirements of the German Commercial Code and in consideration of Sec. 2 para. 2 of the Agreement providing for deposits and release of other revenue reserves (andere Gewinnrücklagen). As a consequence, as a rule the annual profit not taking into account the transfer of profits, must be transferred reduced by any loss carried forward (Verlustvortrag) and an amount not subject to transfer pursuant to Sec. 268 para. 8 of the German Commercial Code.

Sec. 2 para. 2 of the Agreement, however, stipulates that to the extent permissible under German commercial law and justified according to the judgment of a reasonable businessperson in business terms, the Subsidiary may, subject to the Dominating Company's approval, deposit amounts from its annual profit for a given year to other revenue reserves (Sec. 272 para. 3 of the German Commercial Code). In this case, the profit to be transferred is reduced accordingly. The Dominating Company may request that other revenue reserves formed during the term of the Agreement are to be released and either to be used to make up losses or to be transferred as profits.

Pursuant to Sec. 2 para. 3 of the Agreement, the income from the release of other reserves (sonstige Rücklagen), even to the extent they have been formed during the term of the Agreement, may not be transferred or used to make up losses for a year; the same applies to any earnings brought forward from other periods (Gewinnvortrag) existing as of the commencement of the term of the Agreement.

The financial statements of the Subsidiary will neither show an annual profit nor a net profit (Bilanzgewinn) for the duration of the domination and profit and loss transfer agreement due to the existing profit transfer obligation.

4.3 Loss Absorption (Sec. 3 of the Agreement)

The Agreement provides for the obligation of the Dominating Company to loss absorption (Verlustübernahme) in accordance with the provisions of Sec. 302 para. 1 of the German Stock Corporation Act as amended from time to time. The Dominating Company is, therefore, obliged to compensate any annual loss – not taking into account the loss absorption obligation – occurring during the term of the Agreement to the extent that such loss is not compensated by withdrawing amounts from the other revenue reserves that were transferred to such reserves during the term of the Agreement.

Also the further provisions of Sec. 302 of the German Stock Corporation Act as amended from time to time apply accordingly to the claim of the Subsidiary for loss absorption. Therefore, the claim for loss absorption becomes time-barred ten years after the publication of the registration of the termination of the Agreement with the commercial register. Further, as a rule the Subsidiary may only waive or settle any claim for loss absorption three years after the date of such publication.

- 11 -

4.4 Entry into Effect and Term of Agreement (Sec. 4 of the Agreement)

Sec. 4 of the Agreement provides for the entry into effect of the domination and profit and loss transfer agreement, its term and the termination options.

In accordance with statutory provisions, Sec. 4 para. 1 of the Agreement stipulates that the domination and profit and loss transfer agreement requires the consent of the Subsidiary's shareholders' meeting as well as the consent of the shareholders' meeting of the Dominating Company and that it becomes effective upon the subsequent registration with the commercial register of the Subsidiary.

According to Sec. 4 para. 2 of the Agreement, the duty to transfer profits pursuant to Sec. 2 and the duty to absorb losses pursuant to Sec. 3 of the Agreement shall apply for the first time – and therefore retroactively – as from the beginning of the fiscal year of the Subsidiary in which the Agreement becomes effective pursuant to Sec. 4 para. 1 of the Agreement. In all other respects, the Agreement shall apply as from its registration with the commercial register. This concerns, in particular, the right to give instructions pursuant to Sec. 1 as such right may not be granted retroactively.

Sec. 4 para. 3 of the Agreement stipulates that the Agreement may be terminated by notice of ordinary cancellation with a notice period of four weeks to the end of the fiscal year of the Subsidiary, however, not earlier as to the end of the fiscal year that ends at least five full years after the beginning of the fiscal year of the Subsidiary during which the Agreement takes effect pursuant to Sec. 4 para. 1 of the Agreement. It is envisaged that the Agreement becomes effective during the ongoing fiscal year of the Subsidiary by registration with the commercial register of the Subsidiary; an ordinary cancellation would then be possible at the earliest as of the end of December 31, 2021 under continuation of the calendar based fiscal year. Such corresponding minimum term is stipulated with respect to the statutory requirements for the envisaged fiscal unity with respect to corporate income tax and trade tax (Sec. 14 para. 1 sentence 1 no. 3 German Corporation Tax Act (Körperschaftsteuergesetz – KStG), Sec. 2 para. 2 sentence 2 German Trade Tax Act (Gewerbesteuer-gesetz – GewStG)), whereby the disadvantageous tax consequences of an ordinary cancellation during the ongoing fiscal year of the Subsidiary are avoided. It is further shown that with the conclusion of the domination and profit and loss transfer agreement a long term approach is taken. If the Agreement is not terminated by notice of cancellation, it is extended until the end of the respective subsequent fiscal year of the Subsidiary.

Sec. 4 para. 4 of the Agreement clarifies that the right to terminate the Agreement without notice period for good cause remains unaffected. Good cause shall be deemed to have occurred, in particular, in case of the cancellation of the financial integration within the meaning of Sec. 14 para. 1 sentence 1 no. 1 of the German Corporation Tax Act (e.g. due to a transfer of the shares or a corresponding portion of the shares in the Subsidiary by the Dominating Company), a merger, demerger (Spaltung) or liquidation of the Subsidiary or the Dominating Company as well as a transformation of the Subsidiary into a legal form which may not be a subordinated company in the meaning of Secs. 14, 17 of the German Corporation Tax Act.

CONVENIENCE TRANSLATION. FOR READING PURPOSES ONLY!

In accordance with the statutory provision of Sec. 297 para. 3 of the German Stock Corporation Act, Sec. 4 para. 5 of the Agreement provides for the requirement of written form for the notice of cancellation.

4.5 Final Provisions (Sec. 5 of the Agreement)

Sec. 5 para. 1 of the Agreement clarifies that the Agreement contains all provisions agreed upon between the Dominating Company and the Subsidiary that relate to the domination as well as to the profit transfer and loss absorption. Furthermore, it clarifies that ancillary agreements hereto do not exist; neither are they valid.

Sec. 5 para. 2 of the Agreement stipulates that changes and amendments to the Agreement must be made in writing unless a stricter form is prescribed by law.

Sec. 5 para. 3 stipulates that references to statutory provisions relate to the statutory provisions referred to as amended from time to time and that this applies, in particular, to the references to Sec. 301 of the German Stock Corporation Act (maximum amount of the profit transfer) and Sec. 302 of the German Stock Corporation Act (loss absorption). This ensures that any potential legislative amendments will not affect the further fulfillment of the requirements for a fiscal unity with respect to corporation income tax and trade tax purposes which relate to the provisions in Secs. 301, 302 of the German Stock Corporation Act.

Sec. 5 para. 4 contains a severability clause. According to this clause, in the event that any provision of the Agreement is or becomes, in full or in part, invalid and/or unenforceable, the validity and enforceability, respectively, of the remaining provisions shall remain unaffected. Any invalid and unenforceable, respectively, provision is deemed to be replaced by such valid and enforceable provision that most closely corresponds to the economic substance of the invalid and unenforceable, respectively, provision. The same applies if there is a gap in the Agreement. This provision corresponds to the common provisions in the contractual practice and is included for reasons of legal precaution. There are no indications that one of the contractual provisions could be invalid.

Finally, Sec. 5 para. 5 of the Agreement stipulates that the costs of the Agreement shall be borne by the Dominating Company.

4.6 Compensation and Consideration

As all shares in the share capital of ProSiebenSat.1 Sports GmbH are held by ProSiebenSat.1

Media SE, the domination and profit and loss transfer agreement does not have to provide provisions regarding compensation and consideration (Secs. 304, 305 of the German Stock Corporation Act). Explanations regarding the valuation may, therefore, be omitted. For the same reason the examination of the Agreement by a qualified auditor is not required (Sec. 293b para. 1 of the German Stock Corporation Act).
